Spring storms on the horizon

A low pressure system will bring rain showers and thunderstorms across much of the country east of the Rockies over the coming days. This Forecast is valid through Sunday, April 27th.

- Rain showers and thunderstorms will impact much of the Central Plains over the next few days. Delays can be expected at impacted airports.
- The system will extend North and East into the upper Midwest, Ohio Valley, and Southeast Friday into Saturday. Delays can be expected, especially at larger airports.
- Clearing will begin across the East Coast Sunday.

The Department of Transportation estimates that 75% of flight delays are caused by weather. Use KnowDelay to see exactly what airports will be impacted, and which ones will not. KnowDelay can monitor your flights so you'll be ready for any potential delay.
